Our members have access to the clubCorp network, which leads the industry of hundreds of country and business clubs across the country. In addition, special services at more than 1,000 hotels, resorts and entertainment venues. For more information Silicon Valley Capital Club respectfully has a dress code directed by the Board to support the exclusivity and etiquette of the private club experience. Business casual is the basis of the dress code. To assist you, we provide the following helpful guidelines: Gentlemen Slaks are wearing collared shirts with or without jackets. The hat/cap must be removed in the club. Women's slacks or skirts/dresses and/or without jackets. Denim clubs allow proper jeans and other denim attire (no holes, colored, or torn). Athletic clothing, shorts, T-shirts (with athletic or print), flip-flops, men's open-toe shoes (such as sandals) and sleeveless shirts are not allowed. Team/Fanwear (Jersey & Sweater) is accepted at game nights for local teams and national sporting events. The dress code allows children under the age of 18 to wear athletic shoes/sports shoes, but is for members, guests and children over the age. Thank you for using your best judgment to make sure you are comfortable. We are looking forward to seeing you.
